Stitchin' Time

The Franklin American Mortgage Company Music City Bowl? There's a patch for that (No. 29). In fact, each of the 35 postseason bowls has its own logo that gets sewn onto players' jerseys. "The patches are mainly because sponsors want to be seen on TV," says Larry Rutt, whose company, the Emblem Source, supplied patches to 26 of this season's events, including all five BCS games. "But for players, they're badges of honor." For those about to bowl, we salute you.
